To raise funds for The Cretingham Peace Bell project

In 2014 the country remembered the 100th anniversary of the beginning of the Great War. Cretingham has decided to commemorate the centenary of the end of that War by having a special bell cast for its Church tower. It will be dedicated to "Ring Out For Peace" on Remembrance Sunday 11th November 2018. Funds are still needed to update the fittings of the five existing medieval bells at this time so that we will have an upgraded ring of 6 bells that should last well into the next century.

It is also hoped that the ancient art and science of Campanology will be encouraged and preserved by teaching a new band of ringers. PLEASE SUPPORT US
